Other Buildings

To our parents, the tower of our strength, the leaders and advisors of our pathways, the source of our inspiration, and the friends to whom we can turn at all times, we, the student body, gladly dedicate this diary of events out of gratitude for everything you have done for us, and because we feel that the medal for the most deserving persons in all the world belongs to you.

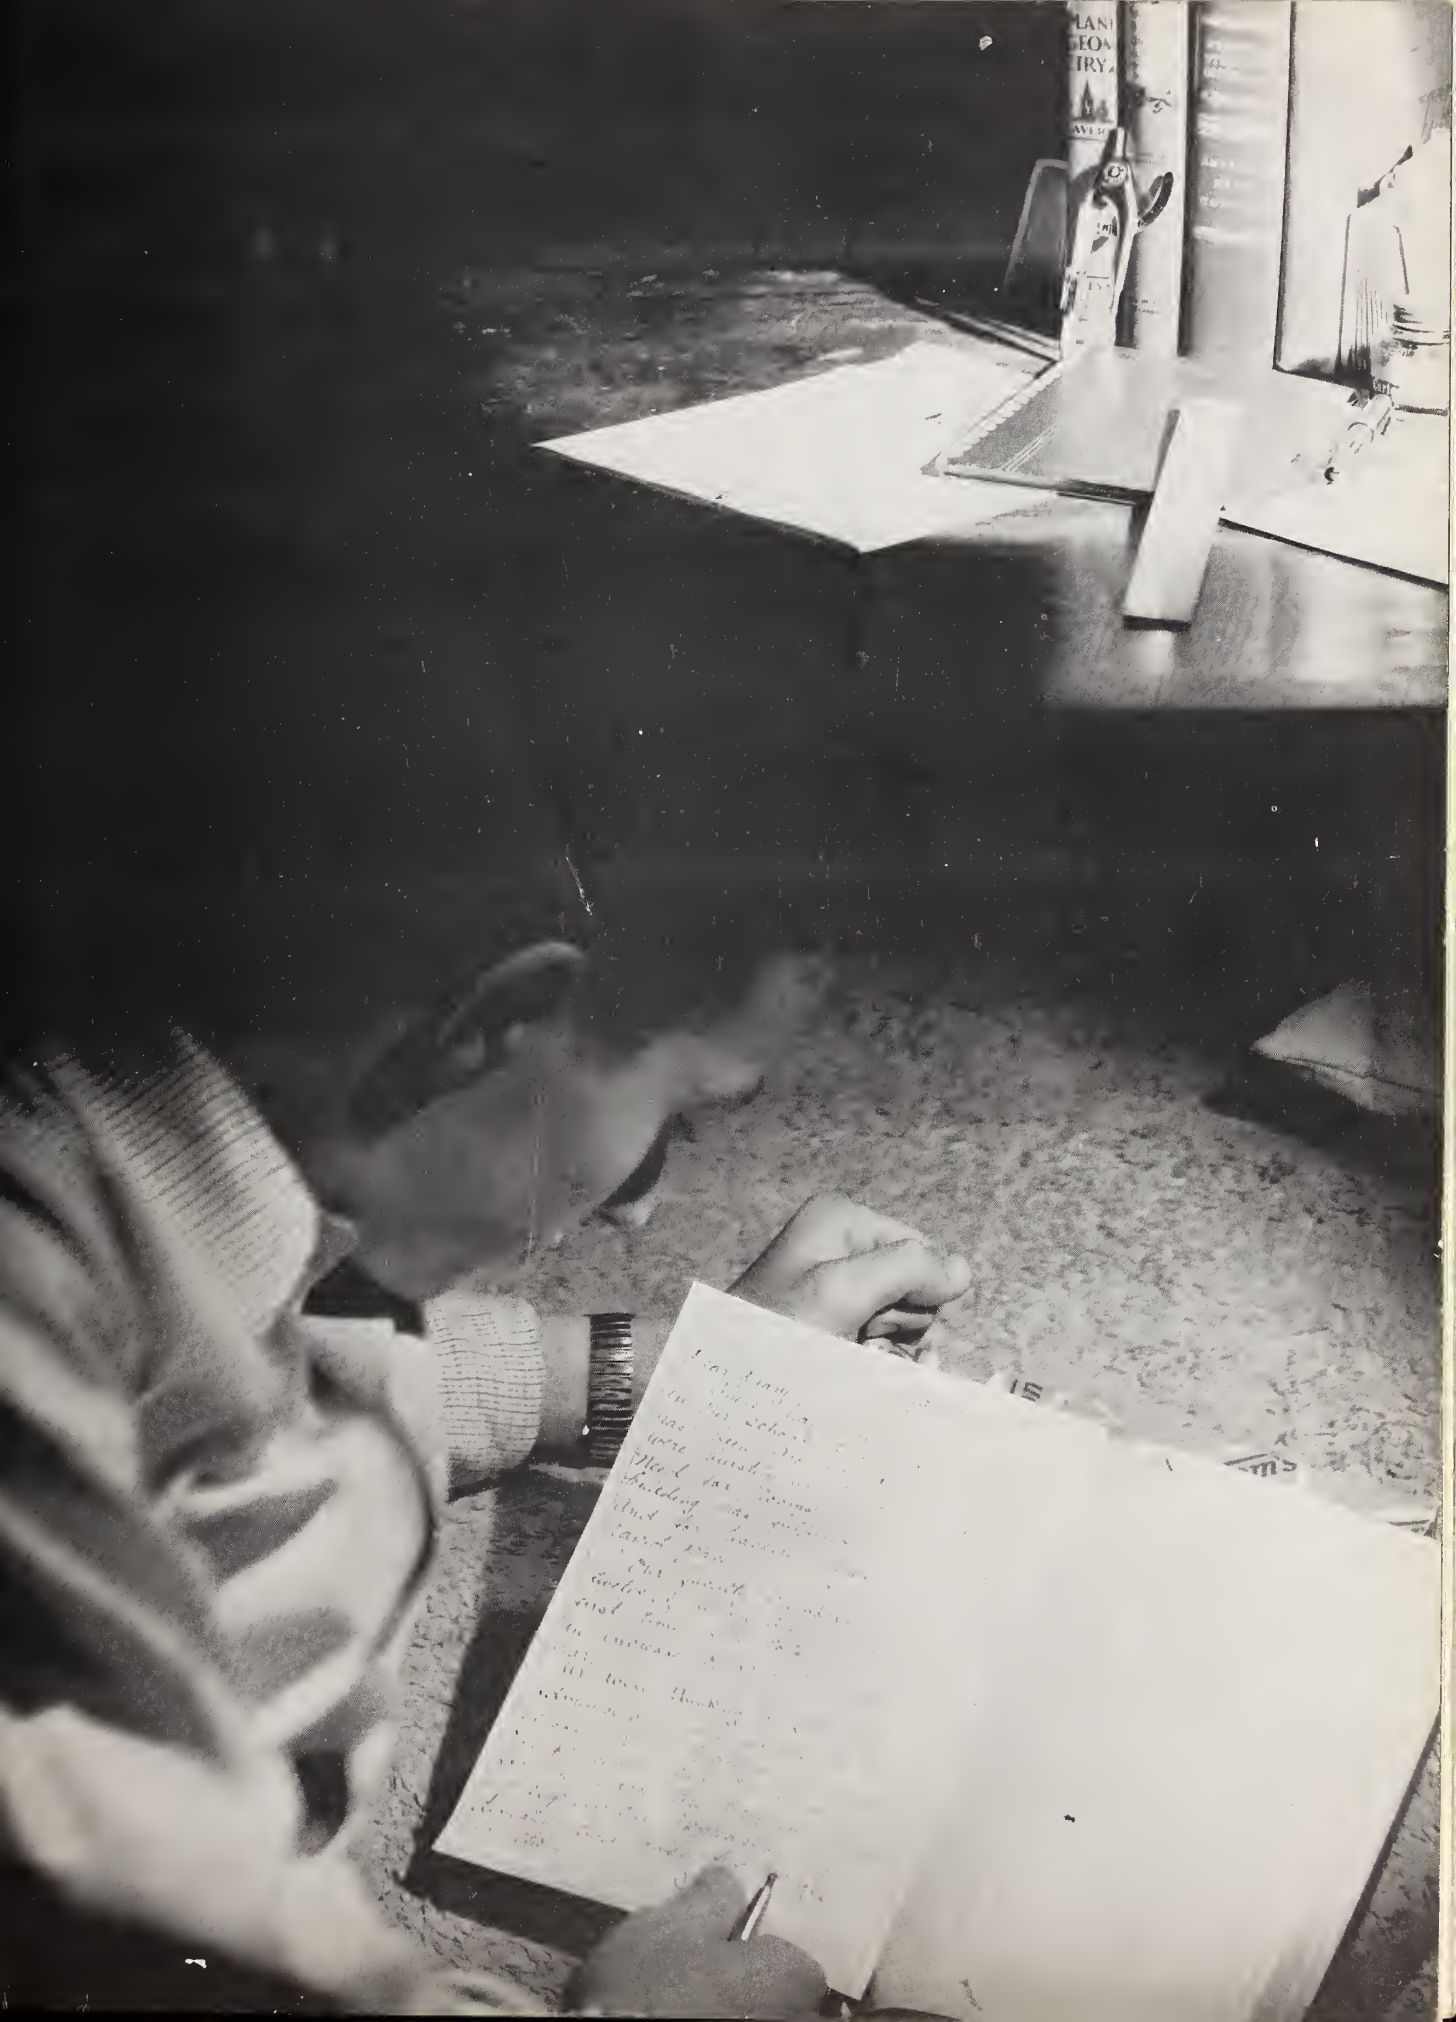

A Message To Seniors

Although you are graduating from High School, please remember that the learning process never ceases. You should continue to grow in social development, in citizenship, in your vocation, and in your reverence for God.

May you enjoy health, happiness, and the respect of your fellow man.

Sincerely,
E. M. White

Dear Diary,

Can anything replace those high school days - - those days when one could have blissful moments of fun!

Certainly there was work and plenty of it, but it was overshadowed by a carefree atmosphere. When we approach graduation and pause to reminisce, we regret not having put our all into the job. Thinking back, we realize that success comes only after taking advantage of each opportunity as it presents itself.

How we would like to relive those moments of our wonderful, unforgettable first prom. Could anything possibly be more exciting than winning that all important home coming football game? Those times were the peak in a "leisure" life. The underclassmen of today can realize only through experiencing for themselves the work, play, fun, and enjoyment of those wonderful high school days.

How lucky they are to face a carefree tomorrow!

Jerry

November 5, 1953

We finally got one of the things we wanted, most--a new Football Stadium. The field itself is located in a natural bowl surrounded by permanent bleachers and lighted by the most modern system available.

Proud we were on the night of September 9, 1955, when we played the first "home" game since football became a part of our lives.

Two seniors and three juniors entered the parade of beauty in the "Miss Caldwell County" contest. The competition was stiff and even though neither of these girls was successful in capturing the crown, we were proud of the charm and poise displayed by our candidates.

Each period of the day two senior girls "learn by doing" as they assist in the school office. The work is voluntary and one-half unit credit is given. Seated: Mabel Cantor, Reva Suddreth, Betty Austin, Fern Cannon, Joanne Brookshire, Mary E. Cline, Jean Bumgamer. Standing: Carolyn Bowman, Loretta McGee, Virginia Bean.

Storekeeper Hall serves the "youngest" or the "oldest" customer with equal consideration. Doris Ann has dispensed tons of ice cream, thousands of pencils and car loads of paper during her four years in the school store.

Best of luck to the "Mina Girl".
Eugene Cannon

Noon,

It sure has been a pleasure being with you this year. Always remember the good times we had in England and the other places we had together. Had some history, too. But had a good time.
Remember when I said I was coming to see you. I am still planning on coming to see you before long. You are a real sweet and nice girl. You have been very nice to me. I hope I have been the same. Hope to be a friend of your always. I hope you will remain and happy in the world. Is you and Debbie all the happiest that a boy and girl could be. May the best be yours always in the year to come.

Love always,
"a friend"
